Voluntary Support Provided to Help Lindsey Start Over

Beyond every shared expense listed above — and beyond anything any court has ordered — Gerald has voluntarily and continuously carried Lindsey's vehicle, its insurance, and her health coverage since their separation, so that she could re-establish herself on stable footing. These amounts were never billed to her and are documented here to show the full, good-faith extent of the support he has provided.

TOTAL VOLUNTARY SUPPORT PROVIDED TO LINDSEY	$58,248.92

Statement for the court. For the court's context: none of the payments in this section were ordered or required of Gerald. He made them by choice, month after month — keeping Lindsey mobile, insured, and covered — to ease her transition into an independent household. This is support extended in good faith, well beyond his obligations, to help the mother of his children get back on her feet.

Paid voluntarily by Gerald, of his own accord, to ease Lindsey's transition to an independent household. Health & GEICO auto: Aug 2024 – May 2026; vehicle loan: Aug 2024 – Mar 2026. Underlying statements available on request.
